INTRODUCTION

Le cahier d'exercices EnglishConnect a été conçu en complément du manuel d'apprentissage EnglishConnect. Ce cahier a pour objectif de vous aider à améliorer votre niveau d'anglais et de faire grandir votre foi par le biais d'exercices et d'histoires. Il vous permettra également de réviser le vocabulaire et les structures de chaque leçon de EnglishConnect dans les quatre domaines de compétences : la compréhension orale, l'expression orale, la compréhension écrite et l'expression écrite. Chaque leçon du cahier d'exercices est divisée en plusieurs sections décrites ci-dessous.

CONVERSATION(S) (CONVERSATION)

Chaque leçon commence par une ou plusieurs conversations. L'objectif est de présenter le vocabulaire, le thème et les structures de la leçon, et de favoriser la compréhension orale et écrite. Chaque section « Conversation » suit le même modèle :

- 1. Écoutez. Écoutez la totalité de la conversation.
- 2. Écoutez et répétez. Écoutez la conversation phrase par phrase et répétez ce que vous entendez.
- 3. Écrivez le mot manquant. Écrivez les mots manquants de la conversation. Choisissez parmi les mots figurant dans l'encadré.
- 4. Lisez à voix haute. Lisez la conversation à voix haute pour travailler votre expression orale.
- 5. Répondez aux questions (ne se trouve pas dans chaque leçon). Cette section permet d'évaluer votre compréhension de la conversation.

ACTIVITIES 2-8 (EXERCICES 2-8)

Le nombre d'exercices varie selon la leçon. Ces exercices incluent des tableaux de grammaire, des exercices de compréhension et d'expression orales et écrites, ainsi que des histoires. Suivez les instructions pour chaque partie d'un exercice. Pour les exercices de compréhension orale, référez-vous au numéro et à la lettre de l'exercice correspondant à l'enregistrement audio (par exemple, « Activity 2B ». Pour les exercices d'expression orale, n'oubliez pas de parler à voix haute. Vous pouvez vérifier vos réponses dans la section « Answer Key » à la fin de ce cahier.

PRACTICE PARTNER INSTRUCTIONS (INSTRUCTIONS POUR S'ENTRAÎNER EN BINÔME)

Cette section vous permet de vous entraîner à parler anglais en exploitant les connaissances acquises pendant la leçon. En binôme, passez en revue le « Vocabulary » qui se trouve à la fin de ce cahier, et faites les exercices de cette section. Parlez autant que possible pour chaque exercice. Profitez de cet exercice pour travailler votre expression orale en anglais.

EXPANSION ACTIVITIES (EXERCICES DE DÉVELOPPEMENT)

Ces histoires et ces exercices ont été conçus pour développer votre expression et votre compréhension orales et écrites en anglais, et pour faire grandir votre foi en Jésus-Christ. Chaque section « Expansion Activities » s'articule autour d'une histoire inspirante. Pour cette section, suivez les instructions suivantes :

1. Apprenez le vocabulaire. Apprenez la signification des différents mots et expressions fournis dans cette section avant de lire l'histoire. Cette étape permet de vous préparer à lire l'histoire et d'en comprendre les mots et les phrases clés.

- 2. Écoutez. Écoutez chacune des parties de l'histoire. Vous pouvez les écouter autant de fois que vous le souhaitez.
- 3. Lisez à voix haute. Lisez l'histoire à voix haute afin de travailler votre compréhension écrite et votre prononciation, et de mieux comprendre l'histoire. Si vous le souhaitez, vous pouvez réécouter l'histoire et la lire en même temps.
- 4. Apprenez le vocabulaire. Ce vocabulaire vous permet de mieux comprendre les Écritures et les citations qui accompagnent l'histoire. Apprenez la signification des différents mots et expressions avant d'étudier les Écritures et les citations.
- 5. Lisez à voix haute. Afin de travailler votre compréhension écrite et votre prononciation, lisez à haute voix les Écritures et les citations à plusieurs reprises.
- 6. Méditez. Ces questions vous permettent de mener une réflexion sur le principe enseigné dans l'histoire. Prenez le temps de méditer sur ces questions. Si vous le souhaitez, mettez vos réponses par écrit.
- 7. Écrivez. Pour cette partie, vous allez effectuer un exercice d'expression écrite qui vous aidera à appliquer le principe de cette histoire.
- 8. Parlez. Pour cette partie, vous allez effectuer un exercice d'expression orale qui vous aidera à vous exprimer au sujet de l'histoire que vous avez lue et du principe que vous avez appris. Cet exercice peut consister à raconter l'histoire avec vos propres mots, à raconter une expérience personnelle sur ce sujet ou à partager avec d'autres vos idées et vos objectifs en lien avec cette histoire.

1. Learn the vocabulary: hip, wheelchair, attention, priesthood blessing

Based on a true story.

2. Listen and read. 3. Read aloud.

David is eight years old. He likes to run and play baseball. He plays with his friends.

One day when David wakes up, his left hip hurts. He can't walk well. He can't play with his friends.

The next day his other hip hurts. He can't walk at all. His mother takes him to the doctor.

The doctor runs tests. They find a problem with his hips. "He will be in a wheelchair soon," says the doctor.

"He might not be able to walk again." David's mother is very sad. She prays for help.

At first, David likes the attention from his friends. He is happy in the wheelchair.

Several days later, David is unhappy in the wheelchair. He wants to run and play with his friends.

He asks his father for a priesthood blessing. He says, "I know Heavenly Father can heal me."

A few weeks after the blessing, David is no longer in a wheelchair. He can walk again. He had faith, and Heavenly Father healed him.

B. Listen to the story. Then read aloud.

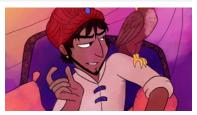

Sinbad was a king in Persia. He was young and energetic. But he was not calm. He often got angry.

He had a beautiful house next to a big forest.

And he had a falcon. He loved this falcon. The falcon ate out of Sinbad's hand.

The falcon slept next to Sinbad. It was a calm and obedient falcon. "You are my best friend," he told the falcon.

One day, Sinbad got lost in the forest. He was very thirsty. He looked for water close to the mountains. He looked for water near the trees.

Finally, he found some water. He put water in his cup. He put the cup to his lips.

But the falcon hit the cup out of his hands. The water spilled on the ground.

Sinbad put water in the cup again. But the falcon hit the cup again. The water spilled again.

Now Sinbad was very angry. "You are a disrespectful bird," Sinbad said. He pulled out his sword and killed the falcon.

He put his cup in the water. Then he saw a poisonous snake in the water. The water was poisonous.

He picked up the falcon and held it in his hands. "Oh, my friend," he cried. "You helped me. And I killed you." Sinbad was very sad. "I was an angry king," he said. "But I will be kind now."

ACTIVITY 4: GORDON TELLS A STORY

A. Listen and read.

B. Read aloud.

Gordon Parks was born in 1912 in a small town. His home was full of love. But his town was not. "Black kids can't play sports," said his high school coach.

When he was 15, his mom died. He moved in with his older sister. She lived in a big city. The neighborhood was crowded, noisy, and unsafe.

He argued with his brother-in-law. He had to move out. For many months, he lived on the streets.

One day he was very hungry. He thought, "Maybe I can steal some money." He saw a man. He pulled out his knife. He started to shake.

He thought about his mother. She had taught him to be good. "Sir," he said, "could you buy this knife? I'm so hungry. It costs one dollar." The man said, "No." Then he gave Gordon two dollars.

After that, Gordon worked hard. One day he bought a used camera. He took pictures of the noisy streets. He took pictures of poor people in big cities.

Soon, people paid him to take pictures. He went back to his small town. He took pictures of his school and his friends.

His pictures told new kinds of stories. They were stories of people in unsafe neighborhoods. They were stories of people who were angry.

They were also stories of people who were kind. And they were stories of people who were hopeful. What is it like where you live? What kind of stories can you tell?

PRACTICE PARTNER INSTRUCTIONS

- A. Help your practice partner review the vocabulary for this lesson in the back of this book. Make sure they understand the meaning of the vocabulary.
- B. Look at the questions in Activity 3B. Use those questions to ask your practice partner questions about their childhood. Substitute vocabulary when needed. For example, if they don't have siblings, ask about cousins. Help them say as much as they can. Then ask more questions. For example, ask, "Who were their friends? What were their friends like?" Then let them ask you the same questions.
- C. Talk about your childhood homes. Ask, "What type of home did you have? What did your home look like? Where did you live? What was close by? Who lived there with you?" Can they describe the home they live in now? Now let them ask you about your childhood home.
- D. Help your practice partner retell the story of Gordon Parks. Talk about the story. Did you like it? Why or why not? Tell a story about your neighborhood. Ask your partner to tell a story about their neighborhood.

Luke 15:11-24

2. Listen.

3. Read aloud.

A rich man had two sons. The younger son said to his father, "I want my inheritance now." The father gave his son the money.

The son took the money and left home. He went to another country. The son sinned. He wasted all of the money.

Finally, the son had no money. He had no house. He had no food. He got a job feeding pigs. The son was hungry. He wanted to eat the pigs' food.

He thought of his father. "My father's servants have food," he thought. "I will go home to my father. I will be his servant."

He went to his father's home. His father saw him coming.

The father ran to meet him. The father put his arms around his son and kissed him.

The son said, "I am sorry. I have sinned. I am not worthy to be your son. Can I be your servant?"

But the father said to the servants, "Bring the best clothes for my son!" He put a ring on his finger.

The father told the servants to prepare a feast. He wanted everyone to celebrate. The son had sinned. But he repented and returned home.

ACTIVITY 4: LIVING IN SPACE

A. Listen to the story. B. Read the story aloud.

Where do you live? Do you have noisy neighbors? Or is it very quiet?

Frank De Winne and Bob Thirsk don't have any noisy neighbors. They live on the International Space Station.

They have to eat very carefully because the food floats. They usually eat with a spoon.

Bob says, "After every meal, we eat a tortilla. We put a lot of honey on the tortilla."

Sometimes they relax. They play cards. They watch TV.

One astronaut sings songs and makes music videos.

They usually sleep in a sleeping bag because they don't want to float. The sleeping bags are attached to the floor.

Once in a while, they take a shower. It is difficult to take a shower. The astronaut floats. The soap floats. The water floats.

Sometimes they look out the window. They see our beautiful earth. They see the sunrise every 90 minutes. Do you want to live in space?

EXPANSION ACTIVITIES: THE OTHER PRODIGAL

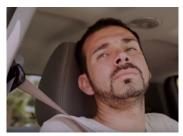

- 1. Learn the vocabulary: foolish, jealous, miserable, humbled
- 2. Listen. 3. Read aloud.

The story of the prodigal son says, "A . . . man had two sons." Both sons were lost.

The younger one was foolish and lost his inheritance. But he came home. His father gave him a party.

The older brother was angry. He did not go to the party.

His father came outside. He asked the older brother to come to the party.

He did not come in. He was jealous of his younger brother.

Later, the father said, "Your brother was lost. He was miserable. He came home. We are so happy to have him home."

He also said, "You have been faithful. Everything I have is yours."

The older brother was humbled. He chose to love his brother and welcome him home.

- 4. Learn the vocabulary: envy (envieth), treasured, cherished, overcome

Jonah 1-3

2. Listen.

3. Read aloud.

Jonah was a prophet of God. God told him to go to a city called Nineveh. The people there were wicked. God told Jonah to tell the people to repent.

Jonah did not obey God. He did not want to go to Nineveh. He did not want to tell the people to repent. He ran away and got on a ship.

God sent a bad storm. The wind blew hard. The men on the ship were afraid it would sink.

Jonah was sleeping. The captain of the ship woke him. He told Jonah to pray and ask God to help them.

The men wanted the storm to stop. Jonah told them to throw him into the water. He knew God sent the storm because of him.

The men did not want to, but they threw Jonah into the water. The storm stopped.

God sent a big fish. The fish swallowed Jonah. Jonah was in the fish for three days. Jonah prayed to God and repented. He promised to obey God.

The fish put Jonah out on dry land. Again God told Jonah to go to Nineveh. He said to tell the people to repent. This time Jonah obeyed God.

Jonah went to Nineveh. He told the people to repent. They stopped being wicked. They fasted and prayed. God did not destroy Nineveh.

World War II was difficult. Germany fought against the Netherlands. After World War II, there was very little food for the people.

Dutch members of the Church in the Netherlands needed food for the winter. They planted potatoes.

Members of the Church in Germany had almost no food. They were about to die. They needed help.

The German Church leaders told the Dutch Church leaders, "Our people have no food. They are hungry."

The Dutch Church leaders wanted to give potatoes to the Germans. The Dutch members were shocked.

"How can we give our potatoes to our enemies?" they said. Their Church leaders said, "The German members are your brothers and sisters."

The Dutch members decided to give their potatoes to the Germans. The German members were very happy to get food.

They said, "Thank you for your love. With this food we can live. We now have hope for a better world."

The love of the Dutch members helped the German members to live. It also helped unify the members in Europe.

Tavian was born in Bulgaria. When he was 5 years old, he was adopted by a family in the U.S.

When he was 10, he had a dream. He saw people that looked like him. They stood behind a fence. They reached out to him. He saw a gate. The gate was locked. He realized, "I have the key!"

He wanted to go on a mission for the Church. He was called to serve in Bulgaria.

In Bulgaria, he served near his birthplace. One day, Tavian and his companion traveled by bus to a small town to teach a lesson.

They asked a man for directions. This man was the mayor of the town. They told the mayor that Tavian was born in the town.

The mayor asked, "What is your Bulgarian name?" Tavian told the man his name. The mayor said, "I know that family!"

They drove to the edge of the village. Many curious people followed them. The mayor knocked on the door.

A woman came to the door. The mayor asked the woman if she wanted to see her son. She came out. She gave Tavian a big hug. "It's a miracle!" she said.

He met 50 family members that day. They all stood in a circle around him. He told them about his life. He told them about the gospel of Jesus Christ. The gospel is the key.

President Pacheo sent his daughter to the bank to get 500 U.S. dollars.

He said, "My wife took the envelope with the money and put it away. She didn't count the money.

"The night before leaving, we counted the money. The bank had given us $4,065!

"The bank had made a mistake of over $3,500! I had never seen so much money in my life!

"Some friends tried to persuade us to use the. money for our trip to the United States. "I said, 'We cannot keep this money because it is not ours.

"The purpose of our trip to the temple is to make covenants with the Lord. What good will they do if we are dishonest?" "We returned the money to the bank. They had noticed that they had lost the money. But they didn't know who had it.

THE CHURCH OF JESUS CHRIST OF LATTER-DAY SAINTS

On my last birthday, Mom and Dad gave me a shiny new bike. I did lots of cool tricks on the bike. And it was faster than my friends' bikes.

But a month later, my friend Evan got a new red bike. It was beautiful. It was faster than my bike.

Then everyone got red bikes. Now my bike wasn't special anymore.

I had an idea. I told Mom and Dad, "I can paint my bike." They said, "Don't do it."

I didn't listen. I painted my bike. But the red paint came off. It looked ugly. I thought, "My bike is ruined!"

I asked Mom and Dad for help. They weren't mad. Dad said, "People make mistakes. There is always a way to fix them."

He gave me some tools. He said, "It will be a lot of hard work. But you can make it shiny again."

It took a long time. I saw my friends outside. I wanted to play with them. But I needed to work on my bike.

At last, the red paint started to come off. Soon, my bike was just about perfect. Dad helped me so much.

ACTIVITY 4: I NEVER GOT LOST

A. Listen. B. Read aloud.

When I was a university student, I went to China to study. At the train station, I sat near an older woman. There were so many trains. I felt lost.

I showed the woman my ticket. "Do you know where my train is?" I asked. She said, "It's around the corner."

A man came by. He looked at my ticket. He said, "Hurry! That train is leaving soon." We ran far away from the woman.

He pointed to my train. I got on the train. But I didn't know when to get off.

I showed my ticket to another man. He talked to the people next to him. He said, "Is anyone getting off at this city?"

The girl in front of him said, "I am." She stood close to me. The door opened. We got off the train.

The girl found a taxi. She asked the driver, "Do you know where this hotel is?" He nodded. We got in the taxi together.

The hotel was next to a museum. We went inside together. She said, "Do you know where the university students are?"

The man pointed to the hotel restaurant. We walked across the lobby to the restaurant. There was my teacher! Thanks to my Chinese friends, I never got lost.

Rodrigo was driving home. He saw a man on the side of the road. The man looked sad. A pair of boots was next to him.

Rodrigo thought, "My wife is waiting. Don't stop." He looked back at the man. Then he turned around. "Is everything OK?" he asked the man.

"My feet hurt," said the man. "I've been walking for 500 miles." "Why don't you wear your boots?" asked Rodrigo.

"My shoes were worn out so I stopped at a church. The pastor washed my feet. His wife gave me these boots. I started walking again, but my feet hurt too much."

"Where are you going?" asked Rodrigo.
"To see my brother in Provo, Utah."

"That's 150 miles away!" said Rodrigo. Rodrigo thought of his wife. Then he said, "I will drive you."

Rodrigo and the man talked. They laughed. Rodrigo drove his new friend to a small house.

His friend knocked on the door. Another man came out. The man cried when he saw his brother. Rodrigo cried too.

"I love this man," Rodrigo told his wife. "This morning we were strangers. Tonight we are brothers." "I'm glad you gave him a ride," said his wife.

John and his friend Matt were accepted to study at a university in Japan. They were thrilled.

When they arrived in Japan, Matt was invited to a party.

He asked John to come with him. "Where will the party be?" asked John. "On the roof of a hotel," said Matt.

"Who will be there?" asked John. "Other international students," said Matt. "It will be fun."

John and Matt went to the party. It was fun at first. But then people started drinking more.

Then the party host brought out some illegal drugs. John felt very uncomfortable. He said, "Matt, we should leave."

Matt said, "I don't want to leave. We don't have to use the drugs. We'll just pass it to the next person."

John knew what was happening wasn't right. He said, "I'm going to leave. You should come with me."

Matt refused. He stayed at the party. After John left, the police came to the party.

The people threw the drugs off the roof. The police tested the people at the party. Those who touched the drugs were guilty.

Matt was expelled from the university and sent home. John stayed in Japan and went to the university.

He became a successful businessman. He later returned to Japan to teach at a Japanese university.

- 5. What is your favorite holiday? Why? What do you usually do? Who do you usually spend it with?

ACTIVITY 4: DIWALI

A. Listen. B. Read aloud.

My name is Deepika. I live in India. My favorite holiday is Diwali, the festival of light. It's my favorite because my name means "light." We usually celebrate for 5 days.

On the first day of Diwali, we always clean our homes. We usually go shopping. We buy new clothes, gold, and new utensils. At night children light firecrackers.

On the second day, we decorate our floors with Rangoli. Rangoli are colorful designs made with sand.

On the third day, families gather together to celebrate. We light the lamps, and we pray.

Then all of my neighbors gather in the street and we share a delicious feast

Diwali is a Hindu feast, but even my non-Hindu neighbors come to the feast. We all share food

On the fourth day, we visit our friends and family. Sometimes we exchange gifts.

On the fifth day, brothers visit their married sisters. The sisters prepare special sweets for their brothers. I love this holiday.

C. Put the sentences in the correct order.	D. Listen to sentences 1–4. Write what you hear.
All of my neighbors gather together.	1

EXPANSION ACTIVITIES: SILENT NIGHT

- 1. Learn the vocabulary: silent soldier, trench, unoffical, truce, no man's land, mortal enemies
- 2. Listen.
- 3. Read aloud.

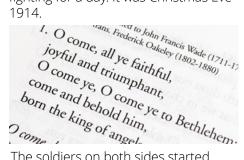

During World War I, 100,000 German and British soldiers decided to stop fighting for a day. It was Christmas Eve 1914.

They had been fighting for five months in trenches. On that night, there were no guns fired. It was silent. It was an unofficial truce.

German soldiers decorated their trenches with Christmas trees and candles.

The soldiers on both sides started singing Christmas songs. They took turns singing. They sang in their own languages.

The next morning, Christmas Day, the truce continued. Many soldiers came out of the trenches. They walked across "no-man's-land"

They shook hands with each other. They said "Merry Christmas" to each other.

They gave each other small gifts of food, buttons, and hats. Some even played soccer with each other.

When Christmas Day ended, the soldiers went back to their trenches and started fighting again.

A German soldier wrote, "How strange it was. . . . Christmas, the celebration of Love, managed to bring mortal enemies together as friends for a time."

- 4. Learn the vocabulary: meekness, peace, counsellor, mighty, everlasting, earnestly, seek, source
- 5. Read aloud. Then listen.

"And his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace" (Isaiah 9:6).

"Learn of me, and listen to my words; walk in the meekness of my Spirit, and you shall have peace in me" (Doctrine and Covenants 19:23).

"Peace can come to all who earnestly seek the Prince of Peace" (Russell M. Nelson, "Jesus the Christ—Our Prince of Peace" [First Presidency Christmas devotional, Dec. 8, 2013], ChurchoflesusChrist.org).

- 6. Ponder: How is Jesus Christ the source of peace? How do you find peace in your life?

EXPANSION ACTIVITIES: LIVING BELOW YOUR PRIVILEGES

- 1. Learn the vocabulary: cruise, ticket, suitcase, farewell, to include, to miss out
- 2. Listen. 3. Read aloud.

A man was going on a cruise. He was very excited about this vacation. He was going to visit Rome, Athens, and Istanbul.

He had saved his money for a long time. Finally, he had enough money for a ticket.

He didn't have a lot of money, though. So he took food in his suitcase. He ate that food every day.

He didn't go to the restaurants on the ship. He didn't go to the movies, parties, or other activities.

He explored the cities. But most of the time, he stayed in his room. He ate the food that he brought.

On the last day of the cruise, a man asked, "Which of the farewell parties are you going to?"

He said to the man, "I don't have money to go to the parties."

The man said, "You don't need any money. The food, parties, and activities are included in the ticket. You already paid for everything."

The man was shocked and sad. He had missed out on many things.

- 4. Learn the vocabulary: privilege, restrained, associates, worth, soul, capacity

2. Listen. 3. Read aloud.

One day, Jesus was walking with his disciples. They saw a man who had been born blind.

The disciples asked if the man or his parents had sinned. The man was blind so that Jesus could heal him and show people God's power.

Jesus made clay out of the dirt. He put it on the blind man's eyes.

Jesus told the man to go wash his eyes. As soon as the man washed the clay from his eyes, he could see.

When his neighbors saw him, they were not sure who he was. He told them that lesus had healed him.

The neighbors took the man to the rulers of the city. The man told them that lesus had healed him.

Some believed him. They said Jesus was a righteous man. Many did not believe him. They said Jesus was a sinner.

The man said that lesus was a righteous man. Later, Jesus asked the man if he believed in the Son of God

The man asked who the Son of God was. Jesus said that He was the Son of God. The man worshipped him.

EXPANSION ACTIVITIES: IT WILL ALL WORK OUT

- 1. Learn the vocabulary: critical condition, motto, grief, resurrection, sealing
- 2. Listen. 3. Read aloud.

Our daughter Georgia was 21 years old. She had a terrible bike accident. She was in the hospital in critical condition. Our family said, "It will all work out."

I flew immediately from our mission in Brazil to the USA to be with her. I held on to our family motto—"It will all work out."

But our lovely daughter died just hours before my plane landed.

We felt grief and shock. How could we still say, "It will all work out"?

After Georgia's death, our feelings were raw. We struggled. Sometimes we still feel great sorrow. But we understand that no one ever really dies.

Georgia is no longer with us. But we have faith that she is still living as a spirit.

We believe we will live with her eternally if we keep our temple covenants.

We have faith in our Redeemer and His Resurrection. We have faith in His priesthood power and faith in eternal sealings.

We can still say, "It will all work out."

- 4. Learn the vocabulary: remove, thine = yours, align
- 5. Read aloud. Then listen.

Jesus said, "Father, if thou be willing, remove this cup from me: nevertheless not my will, but thine, be done" (Luke 22:42).

"When we open ourselves to the Spirit, we learn God's way and feel His will" (Neill F. Marriott, "Yielding Our Hearts to God," Ensign or Liahona, Nov. 2015, 31).

- 6. Ponder: How can you align your will with God's will?

EXPANSION ACTIVITIES: JESUS IS BAPTIZED

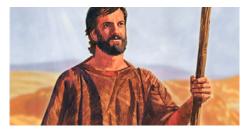

1. Learn the vocabulary: baptist, baptize, camel, locust, tell the truth, be fair

Matthew 3:1-16

2. Listen. 3. Read aloud.

John the Baptist lived in the desert for many years. He wore clothes made of camel's hair. He ate honey and locusts.

People came from the cities to hear him teach. He taught the people about lesus Christ.

He told them to repent of their sins and be baptized. John baptized people who repented of their sins.

The people asked John how to live better lives. He told them to share with the poor, tell the truth, and be fair to others.

He said that Jesus Christ would soon come. Jesus would give them the gift of the Holy Ghost.

One day when John was baptizing people in the Jordan River, Jesus Christ came to him. Jesus asked John to baptize Him.

John knew that Jesus had always obeyed God's commandments. He did not need to repent. John thought that Jesus did not need to be baptized.

But God commanded all people to be baptized. Jesus told John to baptize Him. Jesus set an example for us. He obeyed God's commandment to be baptized.

When Jesus came up out of the water, the Holy Ghost came to Him. God spoke from heaven. He said, "This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased."

A. Listen to the story. B. Read the story aloud.

Mike and Kim were planning their wedding. "I would like to get married at the beach," said Kim. "That would be perfect." "All I need is you," said Mike.

On the morning of the wedding, Kim took a shower and did her hair. She put on her beautiful dress. "Perfect," she said, looking in the bathroom mirror.

As she climbed out the window, she fell on the ground. "Ow!" she cried, and she rubbed her hurt ankle.

"I would like to have fireworks at my reception too. That would be perfect," she said. "All I need is you," said Mike.

But when she tried to open the door, the doorknob fell off. She couldn't open the door. She couldn't get out of the bathroom.

Kim limped to the beach. Her hair was wet. Her dress was dirty. Her foot was swollen.

"I love to dance!" said Kim. "I want everyone to dance at the reception. That would be perfect!" "All I need is you," said Mike.

At the beach, it started to rain. The guests went home. Mike sat in a chair to wait.

Kim called the band. She reserved the beach. She ordered flowers, food, and fireworks. "This wedding will be perfect," she said.

But Kim was still in the bathroom. Finally, she decided to climb out the small bathroom window.

"All I need is you," she said with a a smile. Mike smiled and kissed her.

She saw Mike. "I'm sorry the wedding isn't perfect," Mike said.

EXPANSION ACTIVITIES: THE WISE AND FOOLISH YOUNG WOMEN

1. Learn the vocabulary: oil-burning lamp, wise, foolish

Matthew 25:1-13

2. Listen. 3. Read aloud.

Jesus told a story about ten young women who went to a wedding. They waited for the bridegroom to come and let them in. They did not know what time he would come.

The ten women had oil-burning lamps. Five of the women were wise. They brought extra oil with them.

The other five women were foolish. They only had the oil that was in their lamps.

The bridegroom did not come for a long time. The oil in the lamps ran out. The five wise women had more oil to put in their lamps. The five foolish women had to go buy more oil.

While they were gone, the bridegroom came. He let the five wise women enter the wedding.

When the five foolish women returned, the door was closed. They could not go to the wedding.

ACTIVITY 4: GERTRUDE ELION'S DREAM

A. Listen to the story. B. Read the story aloud.

Gertrude Elion was born in New York City in 1918. She was a quiet girl. She loved to read. She was short and had red hair.

When she was 15, her grandfather got very sick. He was very tired and he had a stomachache. They took him to the hospital. He had cancer. The doctors couldn't help him. He died.

Gertrude said, "I want to help sick people." Her father said, "Be a dentist. You will make a lot of money." But Gertrude had a dream. "I want to find new medicines," she said.

In 1937, she got a degree in chemistry. But she couldn't get a job in a laboratory because she was a woman.

Then her fiancé got sick. He had a fever. He was weak and his feet were swollen. He had an infection in his heart. The doctors couldn't help him. He died. Gertrude was very sad.

"I still want to help sick people," she said. During the day, she worked as a secretary. At night she went to school. She got another degree.

Seven years later, she started to work in a laboratory. Gertrude and her boss, George Hitchings, studied medicines. They studied sick cells. She worked late and on weekends.

Gertrude and George discovered a special medicine. This medicine allows people to have organ transplants. Her medicine saves lives.

"I'm happy," she said. "It's a wonderful life." In 1988, she received the Nobel Peace Prize. Gertrude Elion never gave up on her dream. What is your dream?

C. Listen to questions 1–6. Say the answers aloud. Listen to the answers.

PRACTICE PARTNER INSTRUCTIONS

- A. Help your practice partner review the vocabulary for this lesson in the back of this book. Make sure they understand the meaning of the vocabulary.
- B. Look at the chart in Activity 3A. Take turns asking each other questions about the future. Use each of the five phrases: "What do you want to do, plan to do, hope to do . . . ? What would you like to do . . . ? What are your plans for . . . ?"
- C. Help your partner retell the story in Activity 4 using their own words. Say something for each picture. Ask questions about the story. What did Gertrude's dad hope for? What did Gertrude plan to do? Why did she care about medicine so much? What happened to her fiancé? What did she discover? What is your dream?
- D. Talk about two of your goals for the next year. Then talk about what you want to do in the next five years. Use as much detail as possible. Talk about what you will do to accomplish your goals.

- 1. Learn the vocabulary: run track, details, Paralympic Games, Olympics
- 2. Listen. 3. Read aloud.

"My name is Jason Smyth. I'm from Ireland. I just got married. I run track, the 100 and 200 meters. I started running when I was 15.

I have less than 10% vision. I can see a lot of colors around, but I can't see the details.

Beijing 2008 was my first Paralympic Games. I won both the 100- and 200-meter races with world records.

Four years later was the Paralympics in London. Thankfully, I did exactly what I did in Beijing—I won the 100 and 200 with world records again.

My goal for the next four years is to make it to the Olympics. I just missed out on doing that by 0.04 seconds. That was difficult.

Hopefully, I can improve a little bit each year. I will keep working hard every day.

We all experience challenges and trials in whatever we do. I've learned that what limits me from doing something is me.

The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, my wife, and my family have been great influences and supports for me.

I'm a sprinter. I'm a four-time Paralympic gold medalist. I'm a brand-new husband, and I'm a proud Irishman."

- 4. Learn the vocabulary: realize, capable, imagine, strengthen
- 5. Read aloud. Then listen.

"You are stronger than you realize. You are more capable than you can imagine. You can do it now!" (Dieter F. Uchtdorf, "You Can Do It Now!," Ensign or Liahona, Nov. 2013, 57).

"I can do all things through Christ which strengtheneth me" (Philippians 4:13).

- 6. Ponder: What are your dreams and goals for the future? What do you need to do to achieve your goals?
- 7. Write three of your goals for the future.

ACTIVITY 6: LOST ON THE ICE

A. Listen to the story. B. Read the story aloud.

When Ernest Shackleton was 40, he dreamed of reaching the South Pole. He sailed his boat to an island in Antarctica called South Georgia.

He and his crew started for the South Pole. But, in February, his boat got trapped in the ice. It was stuck. His men fished for seals, raced the dogs, and played soccer.

Then it got dark. It was dark from June until September. The men sang songs and read books. But in September the boat sank under the ice.

"We will walk to water," said Shackleton. They pulled small boats and walked. In December, the men were tired of walking. They camped in tents on the ice.

One night in April, the ice cracked. Their tents fell in the water. One of the men fell in too. Shackleton saved him from drowning.

After that, they found water. They sailed in the small boats. Then they came to a place called Elephant Island. No one lived there. They were far from home.

On April 24th, Shackleton told the men, "I will get help." He left with three men in a small boat. Three weeks later, they were back in South Georgia.

But the town was on the other side of a mountain. They hiked for 36 hours. They stopped to eat, but they didn't sleep. It was too cold.

After he reached the town, Shackleton got a new boat. He sailed back to Elephant Island to get his men. Everyone was still alive. They were happy to see him. He saved them when they were lost on the ice.

- C. Read the questions about the story. Answer aloud. Listen to the answers.
 - 1. Who was Ernest Shackleton?
 - 2. What was Shackleton's goal?
 - 3. What two things happened to Shackleton's boat?

I was blessed on my mission to serve with companions who helped me improve my English.

After I finished my mission, I was blessed to be one of the official translators for the Church in West Africa

My name is Vanessa. This is my sister Fabiela and my father, Fabio. We live in Honduras. My father has a construction company.

He is leaving on a mission for the Church. My sister and I are going to take care of the business when he is gone. We wouldn't be able to do this without English.

English is helping me to develop new skills and new knowledge that I can apply here in my country. English has really blessed my life.

- 4. Learn the vocabulary: diligent, seek, mysteries, unfold, perseverance, demonstrate, tough, give up
- 5. Read aloud. Then listen.

"For he that diligently seeketh shall find; and the mysteries of God shall be unfolded unto them, by the power of the Holy Ghost" (1 Nephi 10:19).

"Perseverance is demonstrated by those who keep going when the going gets tough, who don't give up even when others say, 'It can't be done'" (James E. Faust, "Perseverance," Ensign or Liahona, May 2005, 51).

- 6. Ponder: How will you be able to bless others by learning English? What will you do after you finish this English class to keep learning English?
- 7. Write a list of three or more goals for improving your English skills.
- 8. Speak: Tell your English goals to three people.
